Encore, doggies

Posted by Soren Andersen @ 04:57:07 pm

The wiener dogs are hot, hot, hot.

Those would be the elongated canine stars of "Wiener Takes All: A Dogumentary." (And yes, I groaned as I typed that.) They're the hit of the Tacoma Film Festival so far.

The hilarious documentary about the wild world of sanctioned dachshund racing sold out its first show Saturday at the Grand Cinema. Then it sold out a second scheduled show this evening at 6:45 p.m. A front-page story about the picture in Sunday's News Tribune helped spur sales, festival programmer Philip Cowan announced today.

So in response to popular demand, Cowan added an encore screening at 8:40 tonight. "Come over after the debate," he invited, "to lighten the mood."

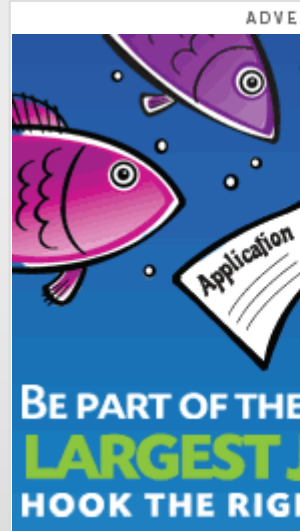

Regardless of how your candidate does tonight, you're sure to howl at the antics of the low-slung racers and their fanatical owners.

GO ARTS

Arts reporter and critic Rosemary Ponnekanti keeps you in the arts and culture scene with the help of other News Tribune critics and editors.

Rosemary Ponnekanti is a reporter at The News Tribune who is a classical music nerd near and far, spending way too much time at museums and concert halls. She brings a whistle and double bass to her sessions, and insists on playing in four-part harmony.

Other contributors include:

> Movie critic Soren Andersen
